

August 11, 2015

BROOKLYN-BASED ARTIST PAUL WACKERS IN SOHO AND AT MORGAN LEHMAN IN CHELSEA THROUGH FRIDAY

This past winter, a huge public mural, Slow Dance and the Daylight, surfaced outside the James Hotel on 6th Avenue off Grand Street. The work of Brooklyn-based artist Paul Wackers, its vivid colors and creative composition intrigue.

Close-up

On view through Friday at Morgan Lehman is Thank You for Being You, featuring a series of stunning paintings, along with ceramic sculptures ranging from the recognizable to the surreal. It is Paul Wackers' second solo exhibit at Morgan Lehman.

A wide view with ceramic sculptures

Morgan Lehman Gallery is located at 535 West 22nd Street between 10th and 11th Avenues in the Chelsea gallery district.

*Photos 1-3 by Lois Stavsky; 4-6 Dani Reyes Mozeson

- See more at: <http://streetartnyc.org/blog/2015/08/11/brooklyn-based-artist-paul-wackers-in-soho-and-at-morgan-lehman-in-chelsea-through-friday/#sthash.mZVbfWMF.dpuf>